Awakening Your Healing Heart A Holoenergetic Training Intensive for Health & Healing Practitioners and Therapists

June 20 - 25, 2010 - Sunday - Friday
Esalen Institute - Big Sur, California

A practitioner's greatest gift is to be so fully present that the client's essential nature, which is one with the practitioners, is resonantly activated. Ideally, this shared field of undistorted, nonjudgmental awareness or witnessing then becomes the context in which all subsequent therapeutic interaction transpires. Since "problems" for which clients seek help ultimately derive from the illusion of separation from one's essential nature, true healing can only occur in this contextual field of wholeness, which simultaneously includes and transcends all phenomena.

This intensive training is designed to teach four powerful therapeutic tools that will enhance the effectiveness and depth of the practitioner's work. Simultaneously, by using these techniques with an awakened heart, the practitioner will be more fulfilled and enlivened by his/her work.

The intensive will focus on these four processes:

- Accessing conscious heart space
- Establishing transpersonal alignment with patients and clients
- Learning to "trace" illness, suffering, and distress to its source—apparent separation from the whole—and transform this energy of separation into unitive love
- Engaging the grace and power of forgiveness to release the inherent capacity to heal oneself.

As the heart opens, the truth and splendor of who we really are is finally revealed and expressed as inner peace, love, joy and freedom.
